ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

W. J. Utton shot on the fair grounds at Morrisville a bullhead eagle which measured six feet from tip to tip of wings.

Two young fishermen at Woodstock were astonished at the success of their efforts when they looked trout measuring 12 1/2 and 11 1/2 inches respectively. They immediately invested in two fish baskets and started out on a systematic campaign to hook all the other big ones.

The Rutland school commissioners are much gratified with their showing for the fiscal year, reporting a balance of $27,157.77 on hand. A portion of this sum will be used in cleaning and repairing the school buildings. The sum on hand in recent years has grown from $10,000 to the present amount.

While fishing in the Castleton river the other day, Charles Channell of North Rutland landed one of the largest trout caught in that section this season. It was twenty-two inches in length and weighed four and one-half pounds. Mr. Channell had six trout, which weighed nine and three-quarter pounds.

A blind Man's Success.
In Troy is a blind man, William M. Hodsten, who is engaged successfully in telephone work. Mr. Hodsten, who is 49 years old, has been blind for the past forty years. When he was 15 years old his father opened a hotel and conducted the same for ten years. His son tended the bar, took care of the wash and buggies and did the work of a hostler. Mr. Hodsten can tell the color of a horse by patting his hand on the animal.

In 1890 Mr. Hodsten opened a store which he conducted for fifteen years, some of the time alone, some of the time with a partner, and some of the time with a clerk. His stock consisted of shoes. He waited on customers and made change with great facility.

In October, 1905, he sold his stock of goods. In 1903 he took the People's telephone exchange, which then had only a few phones, into his store. Having the exchange into his house when he left the store in 1905, he has since devoted his entire time to telephone work. His exchange covers Westfield, the south part of Troy and the south part of Newport. There are at present about one hundred instruments in the exchange. Mr. Hodsten not only does the work of an operator, but he virtually runs the exchange.

DIVORCE IS CONTESTED.
That of Martha G. Mathewson vs. Edson H. Mathewson.

St. Johnsbury, July 29.—The whole week in Caledonia county court was devoted to the trial of the contested divorce case of Martha G. Mathewson vs. Edson H. Mathewson. This has been a hard contest and many witnesses summoned by both parties. The case was finished Saturday. The petitioner resides at present at Barton, and the petitioner at Waterbury, Mass. The petitioner is represented by Dimmett and Slack, of St. Johnsbury; and the petitioner by H. B. Howe, H. W. Hovey, and Elisha May, all of St. Johnsbury. The grounds alleged in the petitioner's libel are intolerable severity and refusal to support. The case is contested because of the prayer for alimony by the petitioner.

This is the last law case to be tried this term. After this is finished the cases on the chancery docket will be taken up. As there is but one chancery case ready for trial an adjournment of court is expected the last of next week.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once become infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newcomb's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Send us in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SHOT THREE KOWN AT DEATHBED

Stranded Son Who Had Just Been Forgiven Refused Reconciliation With Mother.

Versailles, July 29.—Henry Huntington, son of Douglas S. George Huntington, former attaché of the American embassy in Paris, was arrested here last night on the charge of shooting his two sisters and one of his brothers. The condition of the sisters was said to be serious.

The tragedy occurred at the bedside of the father who was dying. Henry had returned to ask his father's forgiveness having been estranged from his parents for some time past. Mr. Huntington, Sr., was suffering from pulmonary congestion and as it was believed that he was near death a telegram was despatched to Henry to return. The latter hurried to the bedside, around which were grouped the weeping wife, the daughters Edith and Elizabeth, and the sons, Alonzo and Douglas.

Henry pleaded forgiveness for the sorrow he had caused and had received his father's blessing, when Douglas requested him to seek the pardon of his mother also. This Henry declined to do, and thereupon, Alonzo asked him to leave the room.

According to the police Henry immediately drew out a revolver and fired at Alonzo. He then wheeled and shot both his sisters and endeavored to make his escape. He was captured, however, by a guard who ran into the house to investigate the cause of the shots.

The Huntingtons were well known in and about Paris, where Alonzo is a prominent artist.

Mr. Huntington, Sr., who is 63 years of age, survived the shock of the tragic scene but at midnight was sinking rapidly and was not expected to survive the night.

Later it was learned that Douglas Huntington was also hit by a bullet. The sister, Elizabeth, is dying from a wound over the heart.

Metaphors.
"It is most amazing," said a metallurgist, "how the world relies on metaphors for its metaphors and similes. Thus, an orator is silver tongued or golden mouthed. An explorer is bronzed by African suns. A resolute chap has an iron will. A shaggy dog moves with lion feet. An ostrich has a copper lined stomach. A millionaire has tin. A swindler is as slippery as quicksilver. A borrower has brass."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Same or Another?
"And you saw Muriel?"
"I did."
"Tell me, is she married?"
"Yes."
"One question more. Again or yet?"
—"Washington Herald."
